GRAPESHOT AND SHRAPNEL

It is one thing to see a bright future for your town. It is another thing to help make it.

Happiness is the father of optimism the uncle of longevity, and the grandfather of success.

The person most tenacious of their opinions are generally the ones who can give the least reason for them.

The lively stables are all turning into garages, the county fair grounds into aviation terminals and the big pavilions into hangars.

Some people grow under responsibility; others merely swell.

—Manufacturer and Industrial News Bureau.

Frank Jones, of California, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Clarence Niskern, enroute to Pittsburgh, Pa.

RELIEVES RHEUMATIC PAINS

"I am subject to rheumatism and when I have a spell of it one or two applications of Chamberlain's Liniment relieves the pain and makes rest and sleep possible. I would not think of doing without it," writes Mrs. C. Owsley, Moberly, Mo.

H. L. CARSON WRITES

The following letter was received from H. L. Carson, of Texarkana, Tex., formerly a railway mail clerk out of Monett:

"I am enclosing check for $2.00 for which you may send the weekly edition of The Times to my address for a year or as long as it may pay for. News from Monett is scarce here, and we have many pleasant recollections of many friends and acquaintances and wish to have what news your paper disseminates pertaining to them.

"It may be interesting to your readers to know that our family enjoys good health and are pleasantly situated. Our oldest son Clarence, who graduated from Monett high school, is still in Rice Institute, Houston, Tex., and doing well. Morgan and Kit lead their classes in high school here and both are advancing nicely in music. Morgan will most likely have charge of or lead the orchestra at Bella Vista, at Bentonville, Ark., this coming season.

"Yours very truly,

"Harris L. Carson,

711 Wood st., Texarkana, Ark."

STOOPS—FELLOWS

A pretty wedding was consummated last night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fellows, Seventh and Church streets, when their daughter, Miss Hazel, was united in holy matrimony to Frederick D. Stoops, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stoops, 1013 Osage street. The Rev. C. V. Lawrence of the Baptist church read the nuptial vows before the immediate relatives of the two families and a few friends. The effective ring ceremony was used.—Neodesha, (Kan.) Sun.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Catherine Conrey to Mr. Lawrence Roetto was made Sunday morning at St. Lawrence Catholic church.

The bridge at the Gibson Adams ford has been contracted for, but the price was not stated as the specifications will be changed somewhat. Two other bridges failed of favorable action by the County Court owing to not having a sufficient sum donated. These were the Roper bridge in Turnback and Center creek bridge north of Peirce City.—Aurora Advertiser.

"IN—A PICKIE."

The trombone player of the village band inquired of the director, "What'll we play next, Joe?" "The Stars and Stripes Forever," was the reply. "Gosh!" said the trombone player, "I just played that."
